Explore your creative side by joining FSM's Art Club! Art Club is an open studio-format visual art group that meets in a creative and supportive atmosphere. Work with Laura to design a project that fits your interests, or bring a project from home that you could use a little help on. Laura will guide your creative vision by providing technical instruction in a variety of media, and assist you with creative problem solving on your project. Basic art supplies such as paint, paper, and drawing materials are provided. There may be a small extra fee for specialty supplies, depending on your projects. Class is limited to 15, so don't wait to register!
