About Us

Friends School of Minnesota (FSMN) offers a rich K-8 program where in-depth academic studies are supported by peaceful forms of conflict resolution. In the tradition of more than 80 Quaker Friends schools across the United States, Friends School of Minnesota meets children's intellectual, emotional and spiritual needs in an environment that nurtures their social consciousness. FSMN is committed to the Quaker values of peace, equality, integrity, simplicity, and community. Silent worship and shared decision-making are important elements of the school culture.

We envision a school community that embodies strength in diversity through the sharing of rich cultural and socioeconomic backgrounds and experiences, and the celebration of varied personal expressions and identities, while recognizing the challenges posed by societal structures of oppression. We envision a student body that is able to work towards and is committed to social justice and equitable change making in the world. We commit to the long-term, collective work of examining school culture, practices, and policies, changing conditions to promote equity, defining diversity and inclusion needs within our school community, and approaching this work with humility and urgency.

FSMN's academic program is guided by the principles of progressive education. We believe that children learn best as active participants, collaborators, and problem-solvers within a community. Teachers incorporate students' questions and emerging ideas into project-oriented, interdisciplinary units that lead to student investigations and demonstrations of understanding. There are currently 150 students and 21 faculty. All students except kindergarten experience mixed-age classroom environments, providing students with broad social and academic opportunities, and allowing cooperative learning to flourish.
